Old people

Let's talk about old people.

Who is the oldest person in your family?

How do you get on with him/her?

Can you tell us about your relationship with elderly people in your family or where you live?

What have you learnt from old people?

What problems might elderly people have in their lives?

Do you think older people deserve respect just because of their age?

What problems might cause conflicts between old and younger generations?

2 Debate

There isn't anything heroic in professional sport, it's just business.

aspects:

- what makes sport so popular
- motivation
- heroic work

for

If professional sportspeople do their job well, they will earn their money.

They only fight for more money.

The loser earns a lot, too.

Team owners and managers also make a good profit through professional sport, and this is pure business.

against

If professional sport wasn't heroic, it wouldn't attract so many viewers.

The way they fight for the money is heroic.

They sometimes need to fight for the team, which is heroic.

Doing ordinary jobs can also be heroic, and professional sport is not an exception.

Which type should be practical?

Who are the different types of garments designed for?

What's your personal preference for cloths?
