

1 Use the correct form of say, speak, tell and talk to complete the sentences.

- a. What did he _____ to you?
She _____ nothing.
- b. Can you _____ me when the movie starts?
- c. We _____ on the phone for over an hour.
- d. Could you _____ louder?
- e. Anne _____, 'I'm tired.' So she _____ she was tired.
- f. Anne _____ me she was tired.
- g. Hello, could I _____ to Mr Brown?
- h. The doctor _____ me to stay in bed.
- i. Is he _____ me the truth?
- j. I like _____ to her.
- k. He was the only one to _____ out against the decision.
- l. She didn't _____ what she intended to do.
- m. Don't _____ me what to do!
- n. Please _____ up! We can't hear you here at the back.
- o. Paul _____ them about his journey but nobody was listening to him.
- p. He _____ he had to delay the meeting until next week.
- q. Ann and Joe aren't _____ each other because they've argued.
- r. The doctor _____ me to lose weight.
- s. 'Stop talking!', the teacher _____ angrily.

2 Use the correct form of see, look (at, for, after) and watch to complete the sentences.

- a. I _____ an interesting documentary on TV.
- b. She is ill. She's _____ the doctor.
- c. The old man is _____ the timetable at the station.
- d. What are you _____?
I can't find the map.
- e. We're going to _____ the football match this afternoon.
- f. _____! It's going to rain.
- g. That's what I wanted to say...
Oh, I _____.
- h. The policemen are _____ the suspicious man's house.
- i. We're hiding behind the curtain. Can you _____ us?
- j. Could you _____ my bags while I'm buying a paper?
- k. Did you _____ him at the party yesterday?
- l. While we were on holiday, my parents _____ our dog.
- m. We're going to _____ him off at the airport.
- n. _____ out! There's a car coming!

Key

1

- a. What did he say to you?
She said nothing.
- b. Can you tell me when the movie starts?
- c. We talked on the phone for over an hour.
- d. Could you speak louder?
- e. Anne said, 'I'm tired.' So she said she was tired.
- f. Anne told me she was tired.
- g. Hello, could I speak / talk to Mr Brown?
- h. The doctor told me to stay in bed.
- i. Is he telling me the truth?
- j. I like talking to her.
- k. He was the only one to speak out against the decision.
- l. She didn't say what she intended to do.
- m. Don't tell me what to do!
- n. Please speak up! We can't hear you here at the back.
- o. Paul was telling them about his journey but nobody was listening to him.
- p. He said he had to delay the meeting until next week.
- q. Ann and Joe aren't talking to each other because they've argued.
- r. The doctor told me to lose weight.
- s. 'Stop talking!', the teacher said angrily.

2

- a. I 'm watching / saw an interesting documentary on TV.
- b. She is ill. She's going to see the doctor.
- c. The old man is looking at the timetable at the station.
- d. What are you looking for?
I can't find the map.
- e. We're going to watch the football match this afternoon.
- f. Look! It's going to rain.
- g. That's what I wanted to say...
Oh, I see.
- h. The policemen are watching the suspicious man's house.
- i. We're hiding behind the curtain. Can you see us?
- j. Could you look after my bags while I'm buying a paper?
- k. Did you see him at the party yesterday?
- l. While we were on holiday, my parents were looking after our dog.
- m. We're going to see him off at the airport.
- n. Look / Watch out! There's a car coming!