

1 Ask questions to find out the uncertain information.

a. Somebody found a little girl in the street.

b. Our neighbour found somebody in the street.

c. My best friend has visited somebody twice this month.

d. Somebody has visited me twice this month.

e. Peter met somebody outside the museum.

f. Somebody met Peter outside the museum.

g. Somebody needs to talk to the manager at once.

h. Susan needs to talk to somebody at once.

i. Some people live together with the grandparents.

j. The Browns live together with some people.

k. Somebody is calling her right now.

l. Paul is calling somebody right now.

m. Helen's sister congratulated somebody's fiancée on her engagement.

n. Someone's sister congratulated the fiancée on her engagement.

Key

- a. Who found a little girl in the street?
- b. Who did your neighbour find in the street?
- c. Who has your best friend visited twice this month?
- d. Who has visited you twice this month?
- e. Who did Peter meet outside the museum?
- f. Who met Peter outside the museum?
- g. Who needs to talk to the manager at once?
- h. Who does Susan need to talk to at once?
- i. Who live together with the grandparents?
- j. Who do the Browns live together with?
- k. Who is calling her right now?
- l. Who is Paul calling right now?
- m. Whose fiancée has Helen's sister congratulated on her engagement?
- n. Whose sister congratulated the fiancée on her engagement?